

AWARD

This complaint was filed by the workman against his dismissal by the management in the matter of reference number 295 of 1978. The opposite party appeared and filed their reply. On the pleadings of the parties, following issue was framed on 6th December, 1979:—

1. Whether the respondent have contravened the section 33 of I. D. Act? If so, to what effect?

And the case was fixed for the evidence of the complainant. The complainant appeared as his own witness and closed his case. Then the case was fixed for the evidence of the management. The management examined Shri Charan Dass Ahlmed of the Industrial Tribunal as PW-1 and closed their case. Arguments were heard. I now give my finding on issue No. 1 as follows :—

Issue No. 1.—The management produced Ex. M-1 order of my predecessor dated 27th December, 1979, passed in application number 4 of 1978 under section 33-2(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act. The management had moved approval application in the year 1978 for seeking permission to dismiss the concerned workman. This application was tried and finally decided on 27th December, 1979, and approval was granted by my predecessor. The present complaint was filed on 14th March, 1979, instead of consolidating it with the approval application it was tried separately. In view of decision of that application the complaint became infructuous. Therefore, this issue is decided against the workman. In view of it, I give my award that the complaint is infructuous.
